Notes:

- I. Since the 2003 academic year, students of the Division of Instrumental and Vocal Performance should revise the contents of the written report based on the suggestions of the oral defense committee members after the lecture recital, and must submit the review sheets signed by all oral defense committee members in the next semester (at the end of September or at the end of February) after completing the revision.
- II. The defense member review sheets must be signed by all judges from NTNU or outside first before being signed by the faculty advisor.
- III. Those who fail to submit the review sheets in time cannot apply for holding the graduation recital.
